Orland Park Christian Reformed Church

Job Summary:

The Director of Worship will craft, direct, and implement the worship of Orland Park Christian Reformed Church (OPCRC). In leading corporate worship, he/she will disciple and encourage the church to increasingly become a Christ-exulting, biblically-rooted, and confessional body of believers. The Director of Worship will collaborate with the Lead Pastor to cast vision for the worship of the church as well as oversee the worship ministry—caring for, coordinating, and recruiting team members.

Qualifications:

- Personal relationship with Christ and demonstrated commitment to discipleship
- Agreement with the confessions of the Christian Reformed Church
- Communication style and attitude that reflects servant leadership
- Strong ability to lead vocally instrumentally, and spiritually
- Developed understanding and working knowledge of acoustic guitar and/or piano
- Appreciation and understanding of both traditional and contemporary worship styles
- Ability to disciple and grow a team who can direct both traditional and contemporary worship
- Collaborative spirit so as to develop trust and community among team members and church
- Self-motivation and strong interpersonal skills
- 3-5 years of worship leadership experience
- Bachelor's degree in music or its equivalent is preferred but not required
- Good Theological Discernment

Responsibilities:

- Plan, direct, and lead all worship services of the church, upholding their gospel-shaped liturgy and dialogical form
- Manage and oversee all worship staff and volunteers (Choir Director, AVL Coordinators, interns)
- Recruit, train, and develop worship volunteers

- Provide spiritual care for worship team by discipling, praying for, and training its members
- Implement new and creative elements in worship that encourage engagement and expressiveness
- Work closely with lead pastor to guide and shepherd the worship life of the church
- Maintain an inventory of instruments and AVL equipment to ensure that they maintain proper working condition
- Serve as the chair of the Worship Committee

Reporting Relationship:

- The Director of Worship will report to the Lead Pastor
- E-mail resume to worship@opcrc.org
